

LEAD Global Training Program

New Application Deadline: January 31, 2023

Training Leaders to Accelerate Global Mental Health Disparities Research

LEAD Global Training Program provides trainees from under-represented groups the skills and hands-on experiences needed to lead multi-disciplinary, collaborative research teams focused on mental health disparities research in low-resource communities.

Program Overview

Summer Intensive Program – 10 weeks starting June 1 – August 4, 2023

- 10-week stipend
- Offered in-person, virtual, and hybrid formats for participants for Summer 2023.
- Targeted skills and knowledge building through seminars and workshops in US and SSA.
- Mentored research and hands-on experience with research faculty member conducting global mental health disparities research in Sub-Saharan Africa or the US.
- Mentorship team and international network building.

Post Doctoral Program – 1 year/Full-Time (Rolling admission)

- Please visit <https://sites.wustl.edu/lead> for additional information

Eligibility

Summer Intensive Program

- Advanced predoctoral students working towards degrees such as MD, PhD, EdD, PharmD, ScD, OTD, etc.
- Postdocs, residents, fellows, or early-career researchers/junior faculty within 5 years of terminal degree.
- US citizen, non-citizen national, or permanent US resident.
- From an underrepresented or disadvantaged group in biomedical, behavioral, clinical, and social science research.
- Commitment to global health disparities research.

For more information:

For more information and to apply, please visit <https://sites.wustl.edu/lead/> or email Chelsea at c.hand-sheridand@wustl.edu

